Fun to read!

By Vicky

These are so fun to read and inspiring at the same time! My daughter, who is 11, looks forward to reading a new card every morning before school. A few of them do have cuss words but nothing offensive (in my book anyway). I think they build her confidence level in a positive way and I'm really glad I purchased them.

love these cards!

By Nickole Garcia

I love the design of all the cards that came in the deck! they really do help cheer me up when im having a challenging day. Im thinking of using these cards with clients in my current placement. I think that they will enjoy reading them and looking and the great art on the cards. Plus they are not the typical affirmation cards some of them are really quirky and I love that about this set. Nothing is the "normal" type of affirmations, that is what makes these so much better then other types!

Unicorns are positive!

By CO book lover!

These are silly and fun affirmations! I love that my older kids can enjoy them, but I think they would be also great for college kids and young women who are looking for a little pick-me-up in a fun way!
