I purchased them for my daughter, for her business. They come in very handy for what she is doing. The words on these cards can be very useful. I picked a card and the word was "UNDERSTAND", that word was perfect for me. I'm using the word everyday as a word that I can refer back to whether it is for me or someone else. I kept that word tucked in my head for over a year and I found a great improvement in how I viewed people. Should I have had small children in my home, I feel that this would be a good teaching mechanism.
