Enter Marion Holloway, leader of the wealthy and prestige Holloway family, a shrewd and persuasive business man with strong political connects and stronger street ties. The man the FBI says is the most powerful black gangster in the country. With his oldest son, Mason, campaigning for mayor of New York City and his illegitimate son, Yasin "Sin" Kennedy, overseeing his lucrative drug operation, he is poised to seize control of the city. But when the war between the Mafia families hit close to home, the unrelenting power struggle between his sons, jeopardizes everything their father has built.

This is Art...

By Niles Manning

This is a perfect example of brilliant writing. Not only was the storyline entertaining, action-packed, drama filled, and full of unexpected twists, but the writing was immaculate. You could feel the author's passion with every sentence, word choice, and punchline, making this an 'edge of your seat' read. Just when I thought I guessed the twist, the road of events went left. The ending was so intense that you are practically forced to anticipate part 2, but not in a bad way where you feel like the story just ended on a cliffhanger. I highly recommend this read if you are looking for a high quality form of urban fiction! Good job, my brother. Much success!
