A non-prescriptive book that releases you to take the first step of opening up your wounded heart to a warm and gracious God

By Viv

Regardless of what page you pick up this story from... it engrosses and captivates, challenges and encourages. My heart was often wrenched, but mostly, uplifted as I laughed through tears in my eyes at Edith's witty outlook in the most dire of circumstances. That God can carry on such a complete work of restoration across distant continents and through new generations offers hope for access to a loving Father in the most entangling of messes.

If you are looking for a prescriptive story... this is not it... BUT if you are thirsty and searching for fresh hope that God is not by any means phased by our often muddled and complex life stories; that in fact, He has strength enough and love enough to come right into our murky midst and weave a tapestry of grace for His glory and our restoration... this is it!

You will fall in love with God all over again!

Thank you Edith for sharing your story.
