At last, Brandon has found the half-legendary Cray, and he'll never be alone again on the Chicago streets. Or so he thinks, but the city has other ideas. Someone is preying on the rentboys of Boystown, and the lethal Chicago winter approaches. But it's easy to keep your eyes closed when you're in love. Easy, and potentially disastrous, when the roof over your head is an overpass and your kitchen is a dumpster. This 21,000 word gay erotic story is the second installment of a projected four part novel, containing scenes of explicit gay sex, including oral, anal, BDSM, and other fetishes.

Different kind of series for Carver, not as full-on, but a good read as ever ...

By DeeGee

The second installment in Carver's first series, "Sleeping Rough." Fascinating characters, compelling story. Not as intriguing, erotically, as his usual stuff, but still the great writing and off-beat voice of the main character kept me going, and there's still way more on offer here than most of your MM erotica reads. I'm grateful that such a capable writer, for whatever reason, is dabbling in this kind of fiction.

Love these two guys

By Green Rose

The second book was just as good as the first one. I fell in love with the two mcs. I had to read this until I was done. I stayed up all night reading all four books. I want book 5.
