Instructors: Plan on reorganizing the flow of material and adding significant sections from other sources.

By Turkish Rabbi

Lots of information, poorly organized, sometimes repetitive
Stats very weak (no probability basis to build on), spreadsheet use limited.
Forecasting painfully detailed, mixing equations with Excel coding
Optimization (majority of text) booooooooooring... when it should be the BEST, MOST FUN part.
Selection of text by full time staff; I am the part time instructor.

Great Resource

By Joshua T. Eadie

Easy to follow instructions that go hand in hand with our class instruction. Well written and easy to understand, only negative is a relatively high rental price. Due do the involvement of software always changing, I recommend renting and not buying.
