The book is, as the author would say, a wao!

By Rohit Jain

The best gift of an author is to isolate herself from the context and provoke reader's imagination so that they can form and relate to their own world. 'Unofficially yours' cast its magic and I, as a reader, had no option but to sink in. If you as a reader flipping through first few pages feel unimpressed, just keep reading; the story shifts gears fast, captivates all your attention and curiosity and towards the end leaves you smiling; smiling as you wonder the honestly, the simplicity, the desperation and the power of true love.
